To whom it may concern
I am writing about the closure of the Talisman
Pub in Underhill Lane
At 72 years of age I have been using the pub
for many years, it is a place I feel safe the only pub as a female I can go in on my own and know everyone. It is a community pub where the
the young look after the elderly and the elderly
look after the young we all work together there is no fighting, no stabbings

Dear Sirs,

I am writing in reference to the closing of my local pub The Talisman, where I have frequented over the last 40 years, and attended many do's with friends and family, weddings engagements, parties and of course funerals of locals to the area.

I usually go most nights to meet up with friends and locals. Having know the tenant Mr Peter Thacker for the last 20 years and more, I know that he has tried his utmost to keep out the rif raf.

We are aware that over the last few years this pub, like many others has had it's problems, and been frequented by troublesome undesirables, and it is therefore very disappointing that the last spate of problems, through no fault of the Tenant, or his staff, who do an excellent job, has been closed.

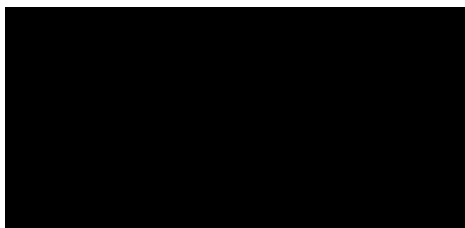

This pub has been a local hub and meeting place for the community, which mostly are of my age who have no intentions of causing problems, we just like to meet our friends and neighbours.

This closure comes at a time where most of us will instead of celebrating Xmas together will now have to stay in alone, as the only other pub we can reach by walking is The Berrybrook , but this pub is predominately an eating house, and there are no social clubs in our area.

I would like to also say that The Talisman has in recent years been refurbished to a good standard, the car park has been resurfaced, and looking as though it had a decent future. Was all that money spent unnecessarily ? Surely not.

I ask along with many others that this situation be re assessed, and give it one more chance to prove that it is a needed community convenience.

I look forward to your comments.

To Whom It May Concern,

Both my husband and I have been using the Talisman Public House for the past 23 years, it is a big part of our lives and continues to be so.

The Talisman is a very well established pub and is run by an outstanding man Peter Thacker and his fantastic bar staff. Peter is a big part of our community and he is liked by all that visit the pub. Our community is not the same without our local pub, and it saddens us to see it all in darkness.

The Talisman Pub holds so many memories over the past years, it is a happy place to visit, and I hope again it will stay open to continue to make more memories.

Peter and his staff have held many charity events over the years, annual Halloween parties for the children of the community and surrounding areas. Father Christmas visits each year with gifts for the children, who thoroughly enjoy themselves, and may this continue.

Yours Sincerely.
