Describe any additional steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives as a result of the proposed variation:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 9)

Nothing beyond existing Fire & Health and Safety Regulations, and as outlined hereafter to promote the four licensing objectives.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

CCTV cameras are used within the premises. Recordings will be retained for 31 days, stored in accordance with the requirements of the Data Protection Act and the information commissioners. CCTV recordings will be produced to Police or authorised Responsible Authorities on demand. A staff training package will be in place for any member of staff who is not a Personal Licence holder. Records of such training or re-training will be kept and produced on demand to Police or authorised responsible authorities. Refusal books will be kept and used at the premises, and again produced to the Police or Responsible Authorities on demand. Door supervisors that are used will be registered with the SIA in accordance with current legislation.

c) Public safety

The premises have marked fire exit doors to the front and side of the premises. Fire Fighting and First aid equipment is in place at the premises. Fire exits are identified by signage and a fire evacuation policy is in place. Health & Safety laws will be fully complied with.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Public nuisance through noise has been minimised in line with current license conditions. All efforts will be made to ensure that persons do not loiter outside the premises.

e) The protection of children from harm

A challenge 25 policy is in place. Proof of ID will be by Passport, Driving licence or pass approved card with signage to support such challenge, along with signage outlining the proxy sale offence. As previously stated refusals books will be kept and used and produced to Police or authorised Responsible Authorities on demand. Signage will be used throughout the premises outlining Challenge 25, The PASS proof of ID and PROXY sales.
