Recommendation for decision:

The Standards Committee is recommended to recommend that Council:

Convene an extraordinary meeting of the Council 18 July 2018 to confer the title of Honorary Alderman on former Councillors Ian Claymore, Barry Findlay, Malcolm Gwinnett, Andrew Johnson, Christine Mills, Patricia Patten, Judith Rowley, Tersaim Singh and Andrew Wynne.

1.0 Purpose

- 1.1 To consider whether to confer the title of Honorary Alderman on former Councillors Ian Claymore, Barry Findlay, Malcolm Gwinnett, Andrew Johnson, Christine Mills, Patricia Patten, Judith Rowley, Tersaim Singh and Andrew Wynne. They all ceased to be Members of the Council in May 2018.

2.0 Background

- 2.1 In July 1998 the Council agreed to establish a policy for the appointment of Honorary Aldermen, for which there is provision in the Local Government Act 1972 (Section 249). Subsequently, in September 1998, the then Policy and Resources Committee endorsed a procedure for reporting to Council on this matter and determined the eligibility criteria. The service criterion was reduced from 24 years to 20 years by resolution of full Council on 14 July 2010.
- 2.2 Mr Ian Claymore has a total of 20 years' distinguished service. During this time, he has not only served the residents of both St Peter's Ward and Oxley Ward, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of our whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular he was Mayor of the City of Wolverhampton in 1979-1980, Chair of the Equalities Advisory Group and Vice Chair of Licensing Committee. He has also taken an active part on the other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.
- 2.3 Mr Barry Findlay has a total of 26 years' distinguished service. Along with this considerable tenure, he has not only served the residents of Tettenhall Regis and Fallings Park Wards, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of the whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular he was the Mayor of the City of Wolverhampton in 2016-2017, Cabinet Member for Environment, Chair of the Corporate Parenting Panel and Vice Chair of a number of committees including Adults and Community Safety, Scrutiny Board, Social Care Housing and Health Scrutiny Panel, Sustainable Communities Scrutiny Panel. He has also taken an active part on the other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.
- 2.4 Mr Malcolm Gwinnett has a total of 28 years' distinguished service. Along with this considerable tenure, he has not only served the residents of Spring Vale Ward, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of our whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular he was the Mayor of the City of Wolverhampton in 2010-2011; Chair of the Planning Committee and Special Advisory Group and Vice Chair of a number of committees including Highways and Transportation and Leisure Services. He has also taken an active part on other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.
- 2.5 Mr Andrew Johnson has a total of 34 years' distinguished service. During this time, he has not only served the residents of Ettingshall ward, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of our whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but he was as the Council's representative on the Local Government Information Unit (LGiU) Executive Board, the Cabinet Member for Resources, Environmental Services, Governance and Support Services, and also chaired a number of committees including Cabinet (Resources) Panel, Special Advisory Group, Social Services, Finance and General Purposes, Corporate Parenting Panel, Municipal Enterprise and Vice Chair of Direct Services. He has also taken an active part on the other committees and panels he served on.

- 2.6 Mrs Christine Mills has a total of 31 years' distinguished service. During this time, she not only served the residents of Merry Hill and Bilston North Wards, but she also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of our whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular she was the Mayor of the City of Wolverhampton for two terms in 2008-2009 and 2012-2013, Cabinet Member for Children and Young People, Chair of the Corporate Parenting Panel and Special Advisory Group and Vice Chair of a number of committees including Audit Committee/ Audit and Risk Committee, Planning and Development, Planning and Environment, Lifelong Learning MPDP, Lifelong Learning Scrutiny Panel, Children and Young People Scrutiny Panel. She has also taken an active part on the other committees and scrutiny panels she served on.
- 2.7 Mrs Patricia Patten has a total of 20 years' distinguished service. Along with this considerable tenure, she has not only served the residents of Penn and Oxley Wards, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of the whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular she has been both Chair and Vice-Chair of Health Scrutiny and the Children and Young People Scrutiny Panels and Vice Chair of a number of committees including Adults and Safer Communities Scrutiny Panel and Scrutiny Board. She has also taken an active part on a number of regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies she served on.
- 2.8 Mrs Judith Rowley has total of 23 years' distinguished service. During this she has not only served the residents of Blakenhall Ward, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of the whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular she was Mayoress of the City of Wolverhampton in 2003-2004, the Council's representative on the West Midlands Transport Delivery Committee (formally the Integrated Transport Authority Passenger Authority) and Chair of Planning Committee and Vice Chair of Planning & Environment. She has also taken an active part on the other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.
- 2.9 Mr Andrew Wynne has a total of 22 years' distinguished service. Along with this considerable tenure, he has not only served the residents of Tettenhall Wightwick Ward, but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of the whole City. They are too numerous to mention, but in particular he has been both Chair and Vice Chair of Performance Governance and Support Services Scrutiny Panel, Safer Communities Scrutiny Panel and Vice Chair of a number of committees including Confident, Capable, Working with Communities and Community Safety MPDP, Vibrant Safe and Sustainable Communities Scrutiny Panel, Vibrant Safe and Sustainable City Scrutiny Panel and Working with Communities Scrutiny Panel. He has also taken an active part on the other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.

- 2.10 Mr Tersaim Singh has a total of 28 years' distinguished service. Along with this considerable tenure, he has not only served the residents of St Peters Ward but also held many important positions within the Council impacting on the lives of the citizens of our whole City. These are too numerous to mention, but in particular he was the Mayor of the City of Wolverhampton in 2000-2001, one of the Council's representative on the West Midlands Fire and Rescue Authority and Wolverhampton Homes Board, Chair of Pensions Committee, both Chair and Vice Chair of Environmental Health and Consumer Services, Superannuation Committee and Safer Communities Scrutiny Panel, Vice Chair of a number of committees including Direct Services, Audit Committee, and Race Relations and Equal Opportunities Committee. He has also taken an active part on the other regulatory committees, scrutiny panels and reviews and advisory bodies he served on.
- 2.11 Mr Ian Claymore, Mr Barry Findlay, Mr Malcolm Gwinnett, Mr Andrew Johnson, Mrs Christine Mills, Mrs Patricia Patten, Mrs Judith Rowley, Mr Tersaim Singh and Mr Andrew Wynne's service all meets the criterion for eligibility for conferment agreed by the Council. Following consultation with the political groups on the Council it is proposed that the title of Honorary Alderman is bestowed on them.
- 2.12 Under the provisions of the Council's Constitution, the function of advising full Council on the conferment of the title of Honorary Alderman rests with the Standards Committee, and therefore, the Committee is asked to consider this proposal.
- 2.13 Honorary Aldermen are invited to attend full Council meetings in a non-participating capacity and are also invited to various functions such as Civic and Remembrance Sunday and other appropriate civic events. Honorary Aldermen are also afforded access to Councillors' rooms and Councillors' car park. The names of Honorary Aldermen are inscribed on a roll of honour board on the ground floor of the Civic Centre.
- 2.14 The Local Government Act 1972 Act provides that an extraordinary Council meeting be convened for the purpose of conferring the title and the necessary resolution must be passed by not less than two thirds of the Members voting. It is proposed that the extraordinary meeting be convened prior to the ordinary Council meeting on 18 July 2018.

3.0 Financial implications

- 3.1 As was the case with previous Honorary Aldermen, it would be the intention to present the former Councillors with a badge of office. These will be drawn from an existing stock of badges purchased prior to this financial year. The small costs of inscribing the names of the Honorary Aldermen on the badges and also on the roll of honour board will be met from existing budgets.
